IN FLANDERS FIELDS

By Lieutenant Colonel John McCrae

In Flanders fields the poppies blow Between the crosses, row on row,
That mark our place: and in the sky
The larks still bravely singing fly Scarce heard amid the guns below.

We are the dead: Short days ago,
We lived, felt dawn,
    saw sunset glow,
Loved and were loved:
and now we lie In Flanders fields.
Take up our quarrel with the foe
To you, from failing hands,
    we throw The torch:
be yours to hold it high
If ye break faith with us who die,
We shall not sleep, though poppies grow
In Flanders fields.
